CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations during the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; to participate in and contribute to the accomplishment of the aims and purposes of The American Legion; to consecrate and sanctify our association by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I Name

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Vermont.

ARTICLE II Nature

Section 1. The American Legion Auxiliary is a civilian patriotic organization of women that supports the mission of The American Legion.

Section 2. The American Legion Auxiliary shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

Section 3. Headquarters for the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Vermont, shall be located in permanent headquarters jointly with The American Legion, Department of Vermont.

ARTICLE III Eligibility

Section 1. Membership in the American Legion Auxiliary shall be limited to the grandmothers, wives, sisters, and direct and adopted female descendants of members of The American Legion and to grandmothers, mothers, sisters, wives, and direct and adopted female descendants of all men and women who were in the Armed Forces of members of The United States during any of the following periods: April 6, 1917 to November 11, 1918; December 7, 1941 to December 31, 1946; June 25, 1950 to January 31, 1955; February 28, 1961 to May 7, 1975; August 24, 1982 to July 31, 1984; December 20, 1989 to January 31, 1990; August 2, 1990, to the date of cessation of hostilities as determined by the Government of the United States; all dates inclusive, or who being citizens of the United States at the time of their entry therein, served on active duty in the Armed Forces of any of the governments associated with the United States during any of said periods, and died in line of duty or after honorable discharge; and to those women who of their own right are eligible for membership in The American Legion. (2013 Amended)

Section 2. There shall be two classes of membership, senior and junior.

(a) Senior membership shall be composed of members over the age of 18 years; provided, however, that a wife under the age of 18 years, who is eligible under Section 1 of this article, shall be classed as a senior member.

(b) Junior membership shall consist of that group under the age of 18 years, whose activities shall be supervised by the senior membership. Upon reaching the age of 18 years, junior members shall automatically be admitted into senior membership with full privileges.

(c) Dues of both classes shall be paid annually or for life.

ARTICLE IV Department Officers

Section 1. The Department Convention shall elect annually a President, a Vice President-President Elect, a President from each District, a Historian, a Chaplain and five members at large, one from each District, to serve on the Executive Committee.

Section 2. The National Executive Committee Woman shall be a Past Department President and shall be elected for a term of two (2) years, commencing immediately following the National Convention. The National Executive Committeewoman shall not serve for more than one, consecutive two-year term. This shall become effective with the 2014-2015 administrative year. The Department President shall serve as the Alternate National Executive Committee Woman.

Section 3. The Department Secretary shall function as Office Director, shall be appointed by the Department President, such appointment to be affirmed by the Executive Committee at the Post-Convention Executive Committee meeting. Once so appointed, she shall serve without tenure and shall be subject to removal by the Department Executive Committee. She shall use the Title Office Director in official communications. (2015)

Section 4. The Department Treasurer shall be appointed by the Department President, such appointment to be affirmed by the Executive committee at the Post-Convention Executive Committee meeting. Once so appointed, she shall serve without tenure and shall be subject to removal by the Department Executive Committee. (2015)

Section 5. The offices of Department Secretary and Department Treasurer will be split into two (2) offices referred to as Secretary or Treasurer in sections herein after named with year. (2015)
Section 6. All Department Officers and standing committee chairmen shall be in good standing in their Units.

ARTICLE V Department Convention

Section 1. The legislative body of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Vermont shall be the Department Convention, to be held annually at the same time and place as the Department Convention of The American Legion.

Section 2. Representation in the Department Convention shall be by Units. Each Unit shall be entitled to two delegates and one additional delegate for each twenty-five members or major fraction thereof whose current dues have been received by the Department Treasurer twenty days prior to the meeting of the Convention for which they are elected. An equal number of alternates shall be elected.

Section 3. The delegates and alternates to the Department Convention shall be elected at Unit meetings held not less than two (2) weeks prior to the Convention. Alternates shall have priority in the order of their election.

Section 4. Delegates at large to the Department Convention or Special Convention shall be the elective members of the Department Executive Committee, the chairman (and members) of standing committees and all Past Department Presidents in good standing in their Units, with vote to be exercised with their Units.

Section 5. Twenty-five (25) percent of the duly elected and accredited delegates to a Convention shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6. Each delegate shall be entitled to one vote.

ARTICLE VI Delegates to National Convention

Section 1. The delegates and alternates to the National Convention shall be elected at the Department Convention to be held not less than two weeks before the National Convention. Each Department shall be entitled to five delegates, and one additional delegate for each 1,500 members or major fraction thereof whose current dues have been received by the National Treasurer thirty day prior to the meeting of said convention and to one alternate for each delegate.

Section 2. With a Department membership of 3,751 or over, each District shall elect one delegate and alternate at their caucus to serve as National Delegates, remaining delegates and alternates will be voted from floor. With a membership of less than 3,751 incoming Department President will serve as the delegate from her District, the Alternate being elected at the District Caucus, and the other four Districts shall elect one delegate and alternate at their respective caucuses. Alternates elected at District Caucus shall serve for their delegates only. (In case of emergency, alternates elected from floor shall serve in order named.)

Section 3. The National Committeeewomen shall be a delegate at large. The retiring President shall be delegation chairman.

Section 4. Automatic Delegates to National Convention will be Incoming Department President/Outgoing Department President, Department Secretary, and if Vermont has one, the candidate for a National Office.

ARTICLE VII Amendments

Section 1. The Constitution may be amended at a Department Convention by a two-thirds vote of the certified delegates present, providing that notice of the proposed amendments shall have been issued through the Department Secretary to the Units and members of the Department Executive Committee two weeks prior to Convention and provided that notice of the proposed amendments shall have been read at such Convention within twenty-four hours before the vote thereon; and providing further, it may be amended by unanimous vote at any Convention without notice.

Section 2. The Constitution shall become effective immediately upon its adoption by the Convention.

Section 3. Amendments to this Department Constitution adopted by National Convention action shall automatically become effective in the Department.

BYLAWS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

ARTICLE I Department Organization

Section 1. The Department of Vermont, American Legion Auxiliary, shall be composed of Units, which shall be organized into Districts corresponding to Districts of The American Legion, Department of Vermont.

Section 2. Districts and Units shall function in accordance with National and Department Constitution and Bylaws and such Standing Rules as shall be prescribed by the Department.

ARTICLE II Election of Department Officers

Section 1. The election of the following officers by the delegates to Department Convention shall be by secret ballot: Department President, Vice-President-President Elect, five District Presidents, Department Historian, Department Chaplain, and in alternate years, a National Executive Committee Woman. A majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect. When there is but one candidate for an office, the nominee may be elected by voice vote.

Section 2. All Department Officers, elected by the Convention Body, shall assume the duties of their respective office when installed at the close of Department Convention. Department Secretary and Department Treasurer shall take the obligation and assume the duties of her respective office when confirmed at the Post-Convention meeting of the Department Executive Committee, and shall serve until her duly elected successor shall take office.

Section 3. A vacancy existing in any office in the Department for any cause other than the expiration of a term shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment from the Department President with confirmation by the Department Executive Committee. A vacancy in the office of District President for any cause other than the expiration of a term shall be filled for the unexpired term by the calling of a special meeting by the Department President of the district in which the vacancy exists. Said meeting shall be held at the site within the district affected and all units within said district shall be notified of the vacancy as well as date and site of special meeting. Number of delegates from each unit to the special meeting shall be the same number as each unit was allotted at the prior Department Convention. Members wishing to be considered for the vacancy shall notify the Department Secretary not less than five days prior to the date of the special meeting, and shall be presented to the delegates at said special meeting prior to a vote. Following election, Department President shall administer oath of office to newly elected District President.

Section 4. At each annual Department Convention the duly elected delegates from each District shall caucus and elect their candidate to be presented to the Convention in nomination for District President from said District. A member at large for the Department Executive Committee shall hold a Department Committee Chairmanship or be on a Department Committee as appointed by the Department President. (Amend 2013)

Section 5. The written consent of candidates, if absent, must be secured before their names are offered in nomination.

ARTICLE III Officers and Powers

Section 1. Department President. It shall be the duty of the Department President to preside at all meetings of the Department Convention assembled and the Department Executive Committee, to appoint members of the standing committees, and to create such other committees and appoint thereon as she deems advisable, and to appoint all officers not otherwise provided for, with the approval of the Department Executive Committee. She shall be ex-officio member of all committees and shall save five Chairmanships to be assigned to each District Executive Committee woman. She shall be charged with the responsibility of executing the mandates of the Department Convention and the Executive committee. The Department President shall not waive her rights to the Office Director nor any other person, permitting the signing of her name to applications for charters issued by National Headquarters, or any other legal document pertaining to the Department. She shall have general supervision and advise the Department Chairmen in the promotion of their programs. Upon failure of any chairman to function on her committee, the Department President shall be empowered to withdraw her appointments and appoint a new chairman. (Amend 2013)

Section 2. Department Vice President. The Vice President shall, when called upon assist the President and in her absence, perform her duties. In case of the death, resignation, or removal from office of the President, the Vice President shall be her successor.

Section 3. Department District Presidents. The District President shall be in charge of the affairs of the American Legion Auxiliary in her respective District under the direction of the Department President. It shall be her duty to encourage and promote in every way the growth, welfare and accomplishments of the Units: she shall be charged with the responsibility of coordinating the activities of the Units and the organization of new Units in her District. She shall preside at all District meetings during the year, and at Convention District Caucuses. Any District President may preside at a Department meeting when requested to do so by the Department President. In the absence of the Department President and the Department Vice President, a District President shall preside at meetings of the Department Executive Committee.

Section 4. Department Secretary. The Department Office Director shall conduct all official correspondence under the direction of the Department President. She shall transmit proceedings of the Department organization in convention assembled, and record the Department Executive Committee meetings and meetings of Green Mountain Girls State Board, and keep all records of the Department organization. She shall transmit a copy of the minutes of the Department Executive Committee Meetings to the Department President within two weeks of a meeting. She shall transmit reports and bulletins of all Department standing committees and send out all literature and calls of meetings. She shall be expected to attend the National Convention and the Department National Leadership Conference. She is charged with hiring and supervising office staff.

Section 5. Department Treasurer. The Department Treasurer shall be the custodian of the funds of the Department Organization and Green Mountain Girls State and she shall account for the same. She shall sign all checks in disbursing the funds as prescribed by her Department and make reports on a monthly basis regarding the condition of the Department Treasurer. Her accounts shall be audited at least every three (3) years by a qualified person with no connection to the American Legion Auxiliary. In the interim years, her accounts shall be reviewed by a qualified person with no connection to the American Legion Auxiliary, at the discretion of the Finance Committee. She shall turn over to her successor all money, vouchers, books and papers belonging to the Department. (2015)

Section 6. Department Chaplain. The Department Chaplain shall officiate as such at the Department Conventions, and shall perform such other duties ordinarily incident to the office or which shall be assigned to her by the Department President.

Section 7. Department Historian. It shall be the duty of the Department Historian to compile the historical records of the Department organization, and to make a report to the National Historian.

ARTICLE IV Department Executive Committee
Section 1. The Department Executive Committee shall consist of the Department President, National Executive Committee woman, Department Vice President, District Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Historian, Chaplain, five members at large, and Chairman of Standing Committees when called. All Past Department Presidents shall be life members with vote. (Amend 2015)

Section 2. Powers. The Department Executive Committee shall have general supervision and control over all property belonging to the Department and shall supervise the administration of the Department between Conventions, according to the Constitution and Bylaws and such other rulings as the Department may prescribe.

Section 3. The Department Executive Committee shall be empowered to call a Department Convention in case of emergency.

Section 4. The Department Executive Committee shall meet within twenty-four hours preceding the Department Convention. There shall be a post-Convention Committee Meeting of the Department each year, and a Committee Meeting prior to the National Convention and at any time thereafter at the call of the Department President. Reasonable notice shall be given thereof. The Department President shall call a special meeting upon written request of no less than five members.

Section 5. Quorum. Ten Department officers and chairmen of standing committees shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6. Absence of any member of the Executive Committee from two consecutive Committee meetings without just cause shall be noted on calls to Department Executive Committee. (This does not apply to Past Department Presidents.)

ARTICLE V Committees

Section 1. The Department President shall appoint chairmen and members of standing committees which are named by the National President and such other committees as she shall deem advisable subject to the ratification of the Department Executive Committee. The Department President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees.

Section 2. The Department President shall appoint, subject to the ratification of the Department Executive Committee, a Department Finance Committee composed of five members, three rotating for three-year terms, one Past Department President (PDP) appointed annually, and the Department Treasurer. Of the three rotating members first appointed, one shall serve for one year, one for two years and one for three years. After the expiration of the first year and every year thereafter, one member shall be appointed by the Department President to serve for the three-year term, and one PDP to serve a one-year term. In case of resignation or death of any member of the Finance Committee, the Department President shall appoint a member to fill the unexpired term, subject to the ratification of the Department Executive Committee. The Finance Committee shall meet monthly, or at the call of the Department President. The Department Finance Committee shall oversee the general financial policy of the Department organization, subject to the approval of the Department Executive Committee. It shall be charged with the preparation of the yearly budget, and shall supervise the expenditure of funds under that budget. The Department President and Department Secretary shall attend meetings of the Department Finance Committee. A Courtesy invitation to attend all Finance Committee meetings shall be extended to the incoming Vice-President-President Elect (Amend 2017).

Section 3. American Legion Auxiliary, Green Mountain Girls State, further known as Girls State Committee. The Department President shall appoint, subject to the ratification of the Department Executive Committee, a Department Girls State Committee composed of three members. After the expiration of the first year and every year thereafter, one member shall be appointed by the Department President to serve for the three-year term, the other two members advancing according to seniority. The Green Mountain Girls State Board shall consist of nine members, of which the President and Secretary-Treasurer of The American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Vermont, and the three members of the Department Girls State Committee shall be ex-officio members. The four remaining members of the Green Mountain Girls State Board shall be elected annually by the voting members of the Department Executive Committee, American Legion Auxiliary, and Department of Vermont. This committee shall assist in the development and functions of Girl State as set forth in the Constitution Bylaws of the Green Mountain Girls State.

Section 4. An Advisory Committee shall consist of the outgoing Department President and the four immediate Past Department Presidents who will serve as members of this committee. The Past Department President serving her fifth and final year on this committee shall serve as chairman. This committee shall act as an advisory group to the Department President when called upon. When there is a vacancy on the Advisory Board, the Department President shall appoint a Past Department President to fill the unexpired term. (2017)

Section 5. A Policy and Procedure Committee shall consist of the Department Constitution and Bylaws Chairman, the Parliamentarian, and three Past Department Presidents with each appointment to be a one-year appointment. The Chairman shall be appointed by the Department President. This Committee will initially set up a thorough comprehensive manual covering all aspects of Department activities from the prospective of policy, procedure and protocol with further annual reviews and updates as needed. The Committee shall be answerable to the Department Executive Committee. (2008)

Section 6. Constitution, Bylaws and Resolutions Committee. The Department President shall appoint, subject to the ratification of the Department Executive Committee, a Department Constitution Bylaws and Resolutions Committee, composed of three members – the Constitution and Bylaws Chairman, the Parliamentarian and a third member appointed, who shall serve for one year, as Chairman of the committee.
(2013)

Section 7. The Department President shall appoint, subject to the ratification of the Department Executive Committee, a Department VA & R committee composed of three members. The VA & R chairman, a committee member charged with the Gift Shops at the VA Hospital and the VT Veterans Home, and a committee member charged with keeping track of Service to Veterans hours. The VA & R chairman will be assigned to the VA Voluntary Service (VA/VS) program, and will be the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Vermont representative to the VA Medical Center (VAMC) Board of Volunteers that reports directly to the VAMC director. The VA & R chairman will assign and train the VA/VS deputy representative to this board, as well as coordinate the efforts of the committee members charged with the Gift Shops and the Service to Veterans hours. (2017)

ARTICLE VI District Organization

Section 1. Organization and administration of Districts shall be in accordance with the National and Department Constitutions and the national standing rules as prescribed by a Department Convention.

Section 2. The Department shall be divided into Districts coinciding with those of the American Legion.

District No. 1: Addison, Franklin, Chittenden, and Grand Isle Counties.

District No. 2: Essex, Orleans, and Caledonia Counties.

District No. 3: Lamoille, Orange and Washington Counties.

District No. 4: Rutland and Bennington Counties.

District No. 5: Windsor and Windham Counties.

Section 3. The Units of each District shall hold one or more District Meetings annually, called by the District President, who shall consult the Department Commander of The American Legion and the Department President of the American Legion Auxiliary, before dates are set definitely. If District meetings are held jointly, the District President in the hosting District shall chair the meeting with assistance from the other District Presidents. The transportation expense of the Department President to one meeting in each District, or Area, will be paid by the Department; this in addition to the regular visit to the Unit. (2008)

Section 4. District Presidents shall attend a school of instruction within two weeks of their election. Said school to be conducted by the Department President and Department Secretary.
Section 5. No District or District officer shall collect or hold funds for the District. (2013)

ARTICLE VII Unit Organization

Section 1. Units shall be chartered by the National President and National Secretary upon receipt of the charter application properly executed and accompanied by the per capita dues and individual membership record forms. Application for Unit Charters shall be signed by the Unit President, Department President and the Commander and Adjutant of The American Legion Post to which it is attached, and said charter shall be closed thirty days after the application has been signed by the Commander of said American Legion Post.

Section 2. The minimum membership of a Unit shall be ten adult members.

Section 3. A Unit shall be given the name and number of The American Legion Post to which it is attached, and there shall be but one Unit attached to each Post.

Section 4. When a Unit ceases to function or its charter has been revoked or cancelled, the charter and all Unit records and funds shall be immediately forwarded to Department Headquarters.

Section 5. No person shall, at any time, be a member of more than one Unit. (Amend 2013)

Section 6. A member who is not subject to suspension or membership revocation under due process is eligible to transfer her membership to another unit if she has paid her membership dues to her current unit for either the current year or immediate past membership year. A member transferring to a new unit must pay current year dues to either her current unit or to the unit into which she wishes to transfer. Evidence of paid membership includes: 1) American Legion Auxiliary Membership Card; 2) Verification of membership by ALA Department or National Headquarters membership records; 3) Other documentation verifying payment of current or immediate past year membership dues such as a cancelled check or receipt; or 4) when verifying documentation is not available, a sworn statement that the member’s membership dues payment was tendered. (Amend 2016)

Section 7. A Unit member may withdraw providing her current dues are fully paid. Upon withdrawal, however, she shall be prohibited from joining any other Unit as a new member during the remainder of the current year for which said dues are paid. In the event a member wishes to remove her membership from one Unit to another during the current year, it shall be done by transfer and not by withdrawal. Transferred members shall not be counted for awards in their new Units until they have paid their membership dues in that Unit.
Section 8. An eligible woman may apply for membership in any Unit but eligibility does not mean acceptability.

Section 9. Nomination and Election of Unit Officers shall be held annually not later than the first regular meeting in September and all officers shall hold office until their successors are elected and installed. Installation must take place before October 20th.

Section 10. All Unit Presidents in this Department shall appoint standing Chairmen to correspond with those of Department Standing Chairmen and such other chairmen as are deemed necessary, subject to the approval of the Unit or the Unit Executive Board.

Section 11. No Unit in this Department or any member thereof shall poll any other Unit or any members thereof without the consent of the Department Executive Committee. (Amend 2013)

Section 13. It is mandatory that all Units have their own Unit Constitution and Bylaws and a copy be on file at Department Headquarters.

ARTICLE VIII Discipline

Section 1. For any violation of the Department or National Constitution, or for conduct improper and prejudicial to the welfare of the Auxiliary of The American Legion, any member may be expelled from membership or any officer removed from office by a two-thirds vote at a Unit meeting duly called for that purpose. Said expulsion or removal shall be binding only in the event that said member or officer shall have been given thirty days notice in writing by the Unit Executive Committee, of the charges and the hearing thereon. Both party may have the right to appeal to the Department Executive Committee and its action thereon shall be final. The expense of said appeal shall be borne by the appellant.

Section 2. Expulsion from one unit does not prevent a member from applying for membership in any other Unit.

ARTICLE IX Charters

Section 1. The Department Executive Committee may revoke, cancel or suspend Unit Charters.

Section 2. Any Unit failing to meet the obligation imposed upon it by the Constitution and Bylaws or by rulings of Convention or Executive Committee or ceasing to function from one Department Convention to the next as an American Legion Auxiliary Unit or refusing to pay the per capita tax due Department and National organizations shall upon order of the Department President, surrender its charter. Upon failure to surrender such charter, immediate steps should be taken by the Department Executive Committee for the revocation of same.
Section 3. American Legion Auxiliary Units suffering the revocation of their charters may appeal from the decision of the Department President and the Department Executive Committee to the National Executive Committee, as prescribed in the National Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 4. The Department Executive Committee may order the suspension of a charter for a period not to extend beyond the closing of the next succeeding Department Convention as a disciplinary measure or pending action relative to final revocation.

Section 5. A cancellation of a Unit charter shall be in order where two or more Units merge, where a Unit ceases to function or under such other conditions as might make such action necessary within a Department. In the event a Unit charter is cancelled without the consent of such Unit, it shall have the right of appeal to the National Executive Committee, under the rules prescribed in National Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 6. A Unit may be reinstated in the Department by paying per capita tax on ten adult members if delinquent only one year.

ARTICLE X FINANCE

Section 1. The revenue of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Vermont, shall be derived from annual membership dues and from such other sources as may be determined by action of the Department Convention or by the Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. A member failing to pay annual dues by January 31st shall be classed as a delinquent and shall be suspended from all from all privileges, provided however such suspended member shall be notified by the Secretary of the Unit of such suspension prior thereto. Payment of back dues after suspension shall reinstate such member to active, membership. Any member delinquent to December 31st of the year of delinquency shall automatically be dropped from the rolls and may thereafter be reinstated with the payment of all past dues or by reestablishing eligibility and making application as a new member.

ARTICLE XI Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. The Department organization shall be governed by “Robert’s Rules of Order, current edition” on all points not covered by this Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI Amendments

Section 1. The Bylaws may be amended at a Department Convention by a two-thirds vote of the certified delegates present, providing notice of such amendments is issued through the Department Secretary to the Units and members of the Department Executive Committee two weeks prior to the Convention, and provided that notice of the proposed amendments shall have been read at such Convention within twenty-four hours before the vote thereon; and provided further it may be amended by unanimous vote at any Convention without notice.

Section 2. The Bylaws shall become effective immediately upon their adoption by the Convention.

Section 3. Amendments to these Department Bylaws adopted by National Convention action shall automatically become effective in this Department.

STANDING RULES

1. Taxes and Funds

A) Membership. The National per capita dues shall be one dollar and twenty five cents ($1.25) per annum for junior Members and nine dollars ($9.00) for senior members, effective with payment of the 2013 dues. The Department per capita dues shall be two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50). Two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) shall be credited to the General Fund and twenty five cents ($.25) to Department junior fund.
